Two uncles of the princess, Dr. Burton J. Simpson, $537 Harvard avenue, and Frank D. Powell, 7353 Champlain avenue, received word that services will be held in Boston, where the body of the princess has been sent, on Thursday. They do not know where the burial will be.

The Princess Radaiwill was the daughter of Dr. Elmer E. Simpson, a well known south side physician, of 6562 Stewart avenue, and Mrs. Simpson.

ing a gun battle with the supposed shayer, who made his escape on a Chicago hound. The officer was able to furnish Chicago police with only a meager description of the killer.

That the man fled after the slaying without attempting to rob the store was evidenced by the fact that Evanston police found the cash register, containing about $56, untouched.

Found by Student.

Mark Boyd, a Northwestern student, was the first to discover the murder. He said that he dropped into Masco lino's about 11 o'clock to purchase some cigarettes. He saw no one in the store or behind the counter, so drummed on the showcase with a coin.

When he received no response, ne said, he started behind the counter, on a heap on the floor in a pool of blood lay Mascolina, dead.

A Remarkable Showing of Mandarin Quality CHINESE RUGS

EVER in our history have we able to exhibit such an unusual portation of authentic Mand Quality Chinese Rugs.

They gleam with a silky their rich vegetable colorings light the eye and their unusual carved figurations represent the best in Chinese They are of the selfsame character, acco to legend, that carpeted the sanctuary Confucius, for in the Confucian "Anale are described rugs with identical colors, and carved figures that are found in this in portation. And they approximate an entire inch in thickness!

Prices are surprisingly low for rugs of this exceptional character. In the 5x8 sizes they average $250. The 8x10 sizes are $350 to $400. The popular 9x12 sizes range from $500 to $550. A 12x22 foot rug at $1950 illustrates the price range among the larger rugs. Colorings are gold, taupe, mulberry, rose and light and dark blue.

You must not fail to see this collection. It includes the finest Chinese Rugs in Chicago and probably the entire Middle West. Just to examine them is an opportunity which no

The Legion undoubtedly will take a strong wallop at the pacifists during this session, but it is not likely the policeman attached to the West Chi-Ku Klux Klan will be brought before the convention. This matter was "settled" in San-Francisco last year.

Interest is running high in the campains for national commander. Col. J. J. Bullington of Illinois is mentioned, but Col. James A. Drain, a veterant from Washington, D. C., appears at present to have the best chance. Drain is also a son of Illinois. Others in the field are John Rea McQuigg of Ohio; Edward E. Spafford of New York, and Vilas H. Whaley of Wisconsin, a state that has great representation in this convention.

Crime statisticians figure that a resident of the United States runs seventeen times more risk of being mur-dered in cold blood than a resident of england or Wales. The hazard of England or Wales. The hazard of meeting with murder is six times greater for the average American than for the average Canadian.

The great deterrent to the taking of human life in England and Canada is swiftness and sureness of justice and the gallows as a maximum penalty. Inevitability of punishment makes the criminal fear the law and the courts, the death penalty makes him fear the commission of the crime. The protection to society given by the deathremaity, plus certainty that the eviltion to society given by the deatralty, plus certainty that the evilre will be punished, as exemplified in France Reverts to Guillotine.

Like eight of our commonwealths, some European countries have abolished capital punishment only to restore it because of an increased crime rate. France got rid of the death penalty in 1906. But murder increased 88 per cent, the figures being those of the Massachusetts Civic alliance, and, in consequence. France restored the guillotine in 1909.

Switzerland, in 1874, abolished the death penalty. In 1879 the law was changed and the cantons were empowered to control their penal codes. Ten cantons have restored capital punishment.

It serves to popularize murder. R. T. Bye, who is often quoted as an authority on crime statistics, estimated that in 1917, out of more than 7.000 "That means," he says, "that only

Forecast of Fall Fashions

For the Autumn and Winter of 1924 and 1925 the mode is now definitely forecast, the Paris openings are over and our representatives have returned. Leschin introduces to Chicago the styles originated by the master minds of the Parisian couturier and accepted by the French and American Woman of Fashion.

Composé Costumes

The Composé Costume is the dominating note in the collections of all the great Paris couturiers. Exceeding in smartness anything presented by the world of style in years, it combines the distinction of a suit, the beauty of a gown, the luxuriousness of a coat and the elegance of a costume compose, each complete and smart when worn separately, and trebly smart and complete when worn together. $125 and upward.

Frocks

Frocks in Paris and at Leschin emphasize the mode of simplicity, achieved through a althoughte slender in spite of godets and flounces—skirts steadily growing briefer and a graceful trimness the very embodiment of youthful charm—this is the rule of three by which the Parisienne measures her smartness. Interpreted in corded silks, bengaline, faille or ottoman; in soft kasha and in lustrous satin......$65 and upward.

Coats

Whether of the practical topcoat type or the wrap for more formal occasions, coats are invariably slender in line and richly befurred, presenting a luxuriousness never quite achieved in any previous season. THE French Salon, inspired by the turn of the new fall season, is gathering daily original models most expressive of French genius, and adding to them our own expert reproductions. Clever adaptations, too, have been made—all expressing the newest and smartest created by Paris this year. One of our loveliest models, after a French import, is of hatter's plush with binding of ribbon. A spray of glycerin ostrich is held by an ornament. French Salon, Fifth Ploor, North, State.

New Pall Coats Fit Into Town, Motor and Steamer Plans

THE ideal autumn Coat, chosen for its warmth combined with lightness of weight and the fascination of its advanced assurance in color, fabric and furs, is typified in the two models pictured.

Typical of the New Colors, New Woolens, New Furs

You will note in the Cumberland camel's hair Coat pictured below the successful use of natural muskrat in the smart high collar, melon cuffs and band extending down one side to the hem. More striking is the Coat of imported wool in the new red called "Hinoki" with its great fluffy collar, cuffs and front border of natural lynx.

considered. Bankers, lawyers, directors, and others concerned with the successful management of business will find a viewpoint in our new book, "Four Square Advertising," which will be worth their while. It presents, we believe, a conception of advertising far more complete than that commonly held. We will send a copy upon request.

ORIENTAL RUGS

It is astonishing what a few well-chosen Oriental Rugs can do in transforming otherwise prosaic rooms into charmingly artistic ones.

For instance, three or four small Oriental Rugs will take care of a fairly large space at less expense than would be required for one domestic rug—think of it—and they're so convenient to lay aside when the young people wish to dance.

Very effective results also are being achieved with small Oriental Rugs thrown about on one-tone carpets.

Of course you know that we buy our rugs in the Orient and import direct—that makes a big difference in the price to you.

Scarcely a day passes that we do not hear surprised comments on our wonderful values. The reason is, we save you the middleman's profits.

The following values are just examples:

This Man Knows Oriental Rugs

Hovsep Nahigian knows oriental rugs.

An early life among the weavers in the Orient, then seven years in Colgate and Brown Universities and a later life of twenty years selling oriental rugs in America have paid for the lore that is his.

Use it. It is yours for the asking whether you seek rugs or ask only to learn of the mystery and meaning of these beautiful oriental coverings.

Connoisseurs know him. Men and women of humbler thoughts know him. They find a pleasant friend who shares with them his complete knowledge of oriental rugs, their colors, design and structure.

Will you, too, come in and get acquainted? We'll make your visit worth the coming and we can explain better than here, why our prices are one-fourth to one-half lower than in any other store.

Except for size, the same in every respect.

The same black-tipped lacquer-rad barrel. The same jevel-smooth point guaranteed, if not mistreated, for 25 years' wear. The same Press-Button Filler, capped inside the barrel where it can't mar the beauty or catch on the clothing. The same Ink-Tight Duo-Sleeve Cay and the surs-fire "Lucky Curve" feed. And the same classic symmetry and balance that inspire the hand to write, and to write clear and strong.

Whenever you write, or lend a pen—pull a good one! You can't keep your head on your work if an alling pen demands your attention. And you don't want to carry a pen that you have to apologize for, This price leaves no reason why you should.

If You Are Going to Move Telephone Wabash 6000

Moving periods mean an avalanche of orders. On May 1 this year, one day alone, we handled 3,603 orders to set gas meters. Where there is no meter on the premises we require longer notice than if a meter is already installed. Place your order now.

Give your correct address, floor and apartment number, and tell us where we can get the key. Our inspector must have access to every room in the house, before turning on the gas, to see that all openings are closed.

If you are building, your city building permit has your correct house number. If you are renting, your lease has your correct house number.

Mistakes mean delays; we are anxious to give you prompt gas service.

If it's done with eat; you can do it better with GAS.

BOBISM MENACE TOCONSTITUTION. BUTLER SAYS

Warns Public Liberties Must Be Saved.

BY FRANK BUTZOW.

A new slogan in the national cam-paign was coined yesterday by Wil-liam M. Butler, chairman of the Re-publican national committee. It is:

Mr. Butler picked for the basis of his

"If power under the Socialist-Third early program is given congress to annul the constitution in any particuar that same power extends to the ocument in its entirety," he declared.

document in its entirety," he declared.

One Vital Issue.

Chairman Butler is developing the pronouncements of the Republican vice presidential nominee, Charles G. Dawes. He sees in this campaign the vital issue of keeping the American constitution inviolate from the menace of radicalism. That is the issue as the G. O. P. chieftain sees it. John W. Davis, the Democratic nominee, is characterized as "a distinguished concterized as "a distinguished con-ional lawyer," but he has been

"The Socialist and party is pledged to the destruction of the constitution—the destruction of the Supreme court. The God-given rights of every citizen of this country to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness are guar-anteed to us by the constitution. This is the document which Senator La Follette seeks to destroy, for he pro-poses that power be given congress

Power of Responsibility

If any of the big lines of transportation - railway or steamship-attempted to operate without system or without ORGANIZED. MORAL and FINANCIAL RESPON-SIBILITY, the public would be afraid to ride with them-and the fear would be justified.

The rule holds just as good in the cab industry because that's a transportation line, carrying human freight, and it must have organization, systematic control and the financial ability to provide the necessary safety and protection, and meet all legitimate claims that may be made against it.

One of the big fundamental differences, however, is anyone can buy a few cabs, mortgage them to the full value and start a cab company, and in this way escape financial responsibility. There must be stability, integrity, decency and absolute system behind any cab concern to make it worthy of public confidence and to induce you to trust your wives, your children and yourself in its vehicles.

The men behind the Yellow Cab-who constitute its MORAL, ORGANIZED and FINAN-CIAL RESPONSIBILITY—stand high in the city's business and professional life. They are known to you. They are deeply interested in Chicago and their interests are here.

These men feel that they have done a big work for Chicago in establishing Yellow Cab and providing you with the most reliable cab service in America. They take a natural pride in the achievement, and a still further pride in maintaining the present high standard.

BOB CUTS CAL'S PERCENTAGE IN WOODSTOCK VOTE

Still Coolidge Gets Six to Davis' One.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

'Woodstock, Ill., Sept. 14.—[Special.]
—In a straw vote here of the business section of the town, the McHenry county fair, and of the Woodstock typewriter plant President Coolidge received six times as many votes as John W. Davis, the Democrat, and nearly three times as many as Senator La Follette. This was in a county bordering on the Wisconsin line.

A summary of the straws cast for President is an Gallows:

McHenry county is heavily Republican and it was selected for a pollbecause it is. There are not enough Democrats in the state to carry it for President, nor for governor. For them to win, they must obtain a large part of the Republican army. In previous elections where the Democrats have either won or came close to it, they showed much larger inroads into the Republican ranks in counties heavily

In this contest Coolidge came forth with a distinct advantage. He retained for 78.23 per cent of the Harding following and grabbed off 14.25 per cent of the Cox voters, while Davis obtained only 2.7 per cent of the Harding vote and was able to retain only 64.28 of the Cox voters. La Follette's 99 votes is 13.07 per cent of the Harding vote and his 14 represent 20 per cent of the Cox vote.

CHICAGOANS PREMIER CAB THANKS YOU!

A few Premier Taxicabs came on the streets of Chicago in May of this year. Every week since then we have been able to add thirty-five new cabs to our fleet, and are still adding at this rate because of your enthusiastic patronage.

You have shown your approval of our absolutely new, clean taxicabs, sent direct from the factory of the Premier Motor Company of Indianapolis to Chicago, and built for greatest riding comfort. This company is known throughout the world for its reputation as a builder of high class motor cars. We realize that as yet these fresh taxicabs have not had time to become old, but arrangements are already made for taxicabs, after having seen a certain period of service, to disappear from the Premier Fleet forever.

Your co-operation with our efforts to protect you against accidents has spurred us on to seek every safeguard. That you are protected by an old line insurance company is merely one proof of our integrity. The greatest proofs are the character and ability of our representatives you have met—Premier Drivers. Each of these men is a qualified union driver who has had five years' intensive driving experience, and comes with a clean record. We spend three weeks in close contact with each man before he is permitted to serve Chicagoans with a Premier Taxicab.

Today we seem to have established a cab system which affords Chicagoans the maximum protection against every conceivable discomfort and hazard. However, tomorrow may uncover to us some additional feature which we will adopt instantly for a greater service to you. We welcome the co-operation of Chicagoans in this, and sincerely hope that more and more you will give us your ideas of Premier Cabs, that we may know how nearly we approach perfection in anticipating all your needs. Now, with Premier Taxicab stands in every part of the city, a telephone call to Victory 7425 (after September 20, Haymarket 4800) will bring you a Premier Taxicab in a very few minutes.

Twenty-five cents for the first half mile; twenty cents for every mile thereafter.

You So!

Could you hide your jealousy and pain if you saw the man you loved smiling into another woman's eyes?

Poor Gabrielle! Love came to her as lightning pierces the night with flames. And then another revelation! Yet she came tripping gaily down the stairs, into the light and laughter, screne and lovely as a flower. None guessed that night the storm of jealousy within her heart—and least of all the man she loved.

To every woman some such hour may come. And you, like every other woman, will read with quickened breath these vivid pages in a new serial by

KATHLEEN NORRIS

STARTING in the October number of The Delineator, this amazingly human story brings you swiftly into the heart of a most dramatic situation. Three generations of the Black Flemings brood darkly over the tawny head of Gabrielle, as she flits, like a stray sunbeam, through the gloomy old family mansion. In its appealing human quality, in its exquisite love interest, in the breathless suspense that carries you on from page to page, this remarkable story is Kathleen Norris at her fascinating best. Be sure you start it with the October Delineator.

nt Flavors ley' Quality

Do You Understand Misunderstood Girls?

Then you will surely enjoy Owen Johnson's latest Skippy Bedelle story, "The Girl Who Was Misunderstood." Skippy, of course, does understand her. And he is only saved from a most embarrassing interview with her father by the timely discovery that she was understood by five other young men as well!

What Makes You Good-Looking?

Dreams and a backbone! "Backs up!" is Celia Cole's way of saying "Stay young!" You mustn't miss reading about these fascinating easy exercises that will give you a supple, youthful backbone.

"Have You Had Your Iodin?"

You know how many women suffer from trouble with the thyroid gland, but do you know that such ailments are most prevalent where there is little Iodin in the water? Marion Hamilton Carter has written an article on this subject that every woman ought to read. It includes recipes, tested and spproved by Martha Van Rensselaer, to supply a deficiency of Iodin in the diet.

"Is Something Wrong With Our Homes?"
When you read the announcement of the "Better Homes In America" prize winner in the October Delinestor, turn to this challenging article by Mrs. John D. Sherman, President of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. It will make you realize how serious is the situation the Better Homes movement, founded by The Delineator in 1921, is doing so much to improve.

"Pil Feed Your Caterpillars— Even the Woolly Ones!"

That was the end of Janet's great revolt—for scientists can be lovable, and a woman will do much for the man she loves! By writing "Leaving Verrall," M. L. C. Pickthall has proved that an appealing love story need not lack the saving grace of real humor. You'll like it a lot.

A New Series of Articles By Fielding H. Yost

If you read the previous Delineator series by the famous Director of Intercollegiate Athletics at the University of Michigan, you know how practical and helpful are his articles on keeping fit. In "The Game of Life," he starts again with some most valuable advice about the playtime of boys and girls.

A Planned Magazine of Service

The Delineator is a magazine of service as well as entertainment. It brings you expert advice from eminent authorities on all questions that interest a woman in her home: Child Welfare; Household Economics; Fashions; Home Building; Interior Decorating; Beauty; Keeping Fit Physically and on many other service features.

The ultimate object of this movement is to keep peace between the members of the league, with the side line determination not to be harrassed by outsiders while engaged in general police work for the good of the league of nations. This is interpreted as meaning that any conflict arising between the British fleet and the citizens of powers not members of the league, as, for instance, citizens of the United States, Russia, Germany, Mexico, or Turkey—the British fleet would have the backing of all the league members.

All Classes of Advertisers Combined Prefer the POST-DISPATCH

The following total paid advertising record proves the preference of all classes of advertisers for the POST-DISPATCH:

Total Paid Advertising

Post-D ispatch, 11,733,400 lines Globe-Democrat, 6,942,300 " The Star - - - 3,535,500 " The Times - - 2,043,900 "

What is true of the first Six Months of 1924 has been true for at least 25 years in St. Louis newspaper history

Home Merchants tell you they have preferred the POST-DISPATCH&25 years

St. Louis Merchants, who know the reading and buying habits of St. Louisans, tell you they have decisively preferred the Post-Dispatch over all other St. Louis newspapers for 25 years. During the first six months of 1924, they preferred the Post-Dispatch in the 15 most important classifications, to the extent of placing 53% of their advertising in this one newspaper alone—or MORE THAN IN ALL THREE OTHER ST. LOUIS NEWSPAPERS COMBINED.

National Advertisers, and those reponsible for the success of National Campaigns, are convincingly shown by this persistent preference for the Post-Dispatch, on the part of St. Louis' most experienced advertisers, that St. Louis' most efficient seller of merchandise is the Post-Dispatch.

In the Metropolitan St. Louis Market

Records of the Audit Bureau of Circulations show that the circulation of the Daily Post-Dispatch in Metropolitan St. Louis exceeds that of the second newspaper by over 39%. The circulation of the Sunday Post-Dispatch, in the same rich area, exceeds that of the other Sunday Newspaper by 76%—and this does not include the tremendous circulation of the Big Sunday Post-Dispatch in the Great Southwest, where there are 1295 towns of importance to National Advertisers. In 135 of these towns the coverage of the Sunday Post-Dispatch is over 50% of the number of families. In 192 towns it is from 35% to 50%; in 442 towns, from 20% to 35%, and in 526 it is from 10% to 20%.

Combine this great leadership in circulation and advertising with the proved confidence and responsiveness of readers, and any advertiser can see why Home Merchants prefer the Post-Dispatch, and why it has always been First in St. Louis Circulation, First in Home Merchants' Advertising, First in National Advertising and First in "Wants" and Real Estate.

This chart conveys the story of the overwhelming leadership of the Post-Dupa

The first fashion event of a new season is this. For with it comes the completed chapter of mode as it concerns fabrics—and in it is the beginning of fashions whose material foundation is in these fine fabrics.

Silks dominate every phase of fashion from the bengalines of the tailleur frock to filmy chiffons aflash with gorgeous metal motifs for evening gowns. Velvet broche on Georgette crepe, satins, silk crepes, all are here.

Wool fabrics smooth into a suede-like surface. The gay informality of sports apparel is visioned in flannels, striped and plaid. Wool repps and poplins are high in favor.

Laces, luminous with silvered threads, foretell a sparkling evening mode. And the color note of the season is repeated in the deep embroidered bands used as garniture.

My most embarrassing moment happened soon after four of us dashed madly for the train. The gate slammed shut just as my chum and I squeezed through. And them—horrors:—we remembered that we didn't have a cent. The train gave a jerk and started, separating us from our other companions who had our tickets and money. Upon running to the door and its thought was my ticket. "I don't quitted understand," he said, handing it back. Instead of the ticket, I had handed him a card reading: "Be not deceived, And finally he came, demanding our tickets. The conductor, unfortunately, for us, was very hard of hearing, and "I wish to offer a number of wom-another hint to the man who is built along the lines of a Jack Dempsey and not those of a man with a size 14 collar. The man in the drawing will give the idea. You will observe, we trust, that the lapels on this young man's coat are generously large. They are wide and long rolling. This is as it should be, in his case. For we begleave to inform you that this is the portrait of a man who would tip the scales at around 200 pounds.

Evicity, the point is this: A large man should see that the lapels of his coat are in proportion to the big lines that his clothing should have. The four outton sack coat, or the three button, for that matter, with the short, narrow lapel such as college youths have been using for some time, is not for him. We saw a man recently, who must have weighed 250 if he weighed an ounce, wearing a four button coat. The small lapels upon his ample chest made his coat arpear three sizes too tired of the word. They will, perhaps, upon reading this, rush out to the nearest haberdasher and, if of large dimensions strive to find the smallest tie, the narrowest collar, the shortest coat, and the narrowest trousers in the shop, just to feel that they are not being builled into wearing something they ought to wear.

We feel it our duty, however; so we are going through with it. Here is another hint to the man who is built along the lines of a Jack Dempsey and that fashions the calf into a Holstein or a Jersey.

It may be generations before such considerations affect our every day life and even later before they influence our politics. But science certainty seems at this time to foreshadow doom for some of the pet fallacies of the demagogue. In time he probably will be relegated to the place now occupied by the rain maker.

HARRIS TRUST & SAVINGS BANK

FOR RENT-Space in TRIBUNE TOWER

Only eleven floors of Tribune Tower (13 to 23) are being offered to tenants. All space on these eleven floors is being sold at the same rate because it is all equally desirable. No office is without its inspiring view over Lake Michigan or Michigan Boulevard-Lincoln Park to the north or the river and the great South Water Street that is to be, at the south.

There is no court space in Tribune Tower. The elevator well is in the center of the building and quickly accessible from all offices. A special bank of automatic elevators, the fastest in Chicago, will serve the upper floors. Service to tenants will be comparable to that of the finest hotels-scrupulous order and cleanliness, courteous and constant attention to the smallest details of every phase of management.

Since Tribune Tower will be ready for occupancy in April, 1925, NOW is the time to assure yourself a place in this unique structure.

Bloedel-Donovan Lumber Mills

Guaranteed 6% Serial Gold Notes

Due Serially 1926 to 1929

MATURITIES AND PRICES Maturity

The following facts concerning this issue are taken from a letter of the President:

HISTORY AND BUSINESS: Lake Whatcom Logging Company was incorporated in 1898 with a capital of $6,000. Two years later the Larson Lumber Company was organized, and in 1913 both companies were consolidated into Bloedel-Donovan Lumber Mills. The present capital and surplus of the Company, amounting to $5,535,064.35, represent accumulated earnings of this original investment. The Company has been under one management for a period of twenty-six years. It is today the largest producer of lumber under one management SECURITY: The Company agrees that so long as any of these notes are outstanding it will create no funded debt nor issue any indenture notes, bonds or other obligations similar to the notes of this issue, and PROPERTY: The Company owns four saw mills, three planing mills, a box factory, a sash and door factory and four shingle mills. These mills, employing 1,400 men, have a daily capacity of 1,000,000 feet of lumber, 750,000 shingles, 500 doors and 100,000 B. M, feet of boxes. The plants are carried on the Company's books at a heavily depreciated valuation and have a replacement value in excess of $3,250,000. This concern has five logging camps in active operation, employing about 900 men. It has about seventy miles of railway with twenty more under construction. The Company owns in fee simple 12,000 access of

The Company owns in fee simple 12,000 acres of timber containing in excess of 521,000,000 feet, valued by James D. Lacey & Co., at $2,243,157.50. In addition it has under contract and controls through affiliated companies, 60,000 acres additional, making the available supply for its mills 2,500,000,000 feet.

ASSETS: The balance sheet shows net tangible assets, after deducting all liabilities except these notes, of $6,434,324.50, and Net Quick Assets of $1,637,271.91, or $6,434 and $1,637, respectively per $1,000 note.

EARNINGS: Earnings applicable to interest charges after heavy depreciation and provision for Federal taxes, for the five year period ending December 31, 1923, have averaged $449,466 yearly, equal to approximately seven and one-helf times maximum interest other obligations similar to the notes of this issue, and that properties now owned will at all times be free and clear of encumbrance. The Company agrees to maintain net quick assets at all times equal to at least one and one-fourth times the amount of these notes outstanding, and total assets in an amount equal to at least two and one-half times its total liabilities.

GUARANTEE: These notes are unconditionally guaranteed as to principal and interest by endorsement by J. H. Bloedel and J. J. Donovan, who submit signed statements showing net worths outside of their interest in this Company to be $2,521,000. These notes are offered for delivery when, as and if issued and a
